Prominent Amateur and Professional Golfers in Stirring Four Ball Match on New Links at Garden City

ANDERSON-HAGEN WIN GOLF MATCH

Siwanoy Captain and Rochester Pro Defeat Travers and Barnes 2 and 1.

PLAY FOR THE RED CROSS

John Anderson, the Siwanoy captain, and Walter Hagen, the Rochester professional, made a winning combination in a four ball golf match for the Red Cross at the Garden City Country Clubyesteriay afternoon. In an eighteen hole round this pair defeated Jerome D. Travers of Upper Montelair and Jim Barnes, the Western open champion, 2 up and 1 to piay.

As is customary in these affairs the women attended to the collecting and several hundred dollars was taken in. It was the first big match held at the Country Club, which is beginning to attract attention. The course was laid out by Walter J. Bravis and is quite new, but considering the short time in which the committee has had to get things in shape the turf has developed wonderfully. The veteran made a fine job of the construction work, the greens being particularly attractive. They are varied in contour and while undulating the "wavy" effect is not so pronounced as to be trophlesome.

Anderson Pirat to Score.

Anderson was the first to score for his side. He won his second hole in 3. This is 190 yards and he reached the green nicely with a spoon shot. The ethers, using irons, brought up in the rough on different sides of the green. Although Travers's approach shot to the third hole was a beauty he lost a chance to win with a 3 by missing a six fost put. As it was he halved for his side with Hagen, who got a 4.

with a 3 by missing a six foot putt. As it was he halved for his side with Hagen, who got a 4.

Barnes came to the rescue at the fourth hole, getting a half in 4 with Anderson. Travers was short there on his approach, while Hagen was ever the green on his second. They all got 3s at the short fifth, but Travers halved the sixth for his side, getting a 4, as did Hagen. The same two halved the seventh hole in 4, each getting down good putts. Anderson then won the eighth hole for his side in 4, so that the Travers-Barnes combination found themselves 2 down standing on the ninth tee. Here the Western open champlon rose to the occasion by getting within a few yards of the green on his second shot, playing the next dead and winning for his side in 4. The hole is 533 yards. Anderson and Hagen, therefore, turned for home 1 up. The Siwanoy man went out in 39, Hagen being credited with 38. Travers also went out in 38 and Barnes 39.

After 4s all around at the tenth Hagen won the short eleventh in S. Jerry everplayed there, failed to get on on his econd and picked up. Harnes should have had a half in 3 with Hagen, but he took three putts. That placed the Barnes elde 2 down again, but Travers won the twelfth hole with a capital 4. Hagen had a chance there, but he missed

Extra Values In Sport Shoes Priced Closer Than Ordinary In These Times of Soaring Leathers

FOR twenty years we have served and satisfied the sportsman in his footwear. Over this span of time we have established advantageous relations with many of the highest grade manufacturers in America who have responded—and who still respond—to our style and quality standards.

Arm in arm with our reputation for good shoes is our economy policy which now, more than ever, we are continually mindful of. We have kept a taut rein on the runaway tendencies of shoe prices-and our present stock and its quotations show how well we are keeping to the middle of the road of nonexcessive profits.
